Dear sirs:

I am writing to express my dissatisfaction with the proposed settlement in the Microsoft antitrust case. It has been proven in court that Microsoft has violated the Sherman act with it's monopoly, yet the current proposal takes no steps to deprive Microsoft of it's ill-gotten gains, and insufficient steps to prevent future corporate misbehaviour. I ask the court to take this into consideration and amend the settlement with a more appropriate punishment and preventative clauses. Thank you for your time.

Sincerely,

Michael Long
